

WORKSHEET: TOYS AND GENDER STEREOTYPES

1. Look at the images below. Can you tell which one shows toys "for boys" and which one "for girls"?

2. Now, look at the wordclouds below and complete with "boys" or "girls". Then, add 4 or 5 words that describe the pictures above.

Toys for _____	Toys for _____

LISA VS. MALIBU STACY

1. Listen to what Malibu Stacy says and put the sentences in order.

1	"I wish they taught shopping at school."
	"My name is Stacy, but you can call me... wolf whistle"
	"Now let's forget our troubles with a big bowl of strawberry ice cream."
	"Thinking too much gives you wrinkles."
	"Let's bake some cookies for the boys."
	"Don't ask me. I'm just a girl. Haha!"
	"Let's buy makeup so the boys will like us."

2. Match the sentences above with the stereotype they promote.

	Girls are the ones who cook.
	Girls are shallow.
	Girls don't think.
	Girls are not smart.
1	Girls like shopping.
	Girls like being catcalled.
	Girls have to be pretty for boys.

💡 THINK & DISCUSS: What do you think of these stereotypes? Are there similar stereotypes about boys? What are they?
