Nutrition

WORKSHEET 4

1. Complete the text about excretion.

rectum	intestine	faeces	water	excretion

The process of _____ begins in the small _____. As vitamins and nutrients are absorbed, waste substances are left behind. These waste substances contain a lot of _____. This is absorbed as the substances pass through the large intestine. The remaining substances form _____, which pass into the _____. Finally, they are expelled from the body as solid waste.

2. Classify the words.

urine	pores	carbon dioxide	faeces	kidney	exhaling	bladder
rectum	anus	sweating	urethra	large intestine

Solid waste	Liquid waste	Gaseous waste

1. Match.

Rectum and anus	liquid waste
Sweat glands and bladder	solid waste
Lungs	waste in form of gases

2. Complete the sentences with the words from the box.

urethra	rectum	urine	absorbed	bladder
expelled	faeces	water	solid	blood

a) When the undigested food is in the small intestine, it still contains a lot of _____.

b) In the large intestine, most of the water is_____ back into the body. The _____ waste that remains forms solid lumps called_____. They pass into the_____, where they're stored.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Nutrition

WORKSHEET 4

c) Finally, the faeces are _____ through the anus.

d) The kidneys filter the _____, removing extra water and waste, forming a liquid called _____.

e) The urine travels to the _____where it's stored.

f) Finally, urine is expelled through the _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS