

(B1) Unit 1 - Vocabulary

Nature

Complete the sentences using:

unspoilt, scenery, extinct, snow-capped, remote, bargain, gale

- The grassland _____ of Tibet is unrivalled.
- Majestic _____ peaks towered over sweeping flower-strewn plains.
- An _____ coral reef encloses the bay.
- The passengers were enthralled by the _____.
- The house crumpled up in the _____.
- A number of small _____ volcanoes, however, appear in all directions.
- The _____ peaks of the Sorondo mountain range provide a dramatic backdrop.
- The _____ showed a forest.
- How do you operate the _____ control unit?
- The car was a _____ at that price.
- Huge modern hotels have ruined this once _____ coastline.
- A _____ was blowing from the east.
- In three of them the volcanoes are entirely _____, while the fourth is still in great activity.
- Two children, _____ mountains, brilliant vistas.
- The _____ desert area is accessible only by helicopter.
- During the _____ roof tiles came hurtling down.
- The _____ mountain stood out in sharp relief against the blue sky.
- The quake destroyed mud buildings in many _____ villages.
- This so-called _____ is just a con!
- It was blowing a _____ outside.
- She designed the _____ for the play.
- The _____ blustered all night.
- The flowers were colourful and the _____ magnificent.
- A _____ is a bargain.
- Dorset is as yet _____ by coachloads of tourists.
- The bomb was detonated by _____ control.
- Adulthood and responsibility seemed impossibly _____.
- We went for a drive to enjoy the _____.
- They clapped up a _____.
- We marvelled at the splendour of the _____.
- They lived in a _____ mountain village.
- In some shops you have to _____.
- She remained _____ by her success.
- In Burma also there is at least one _____ volcano.
- The _____ summit, 2,642 metres high, offers astounding views.
- The city is celebrated for its beautiful _____.
- He was struck with the beauty of _____.
- Many trees were blown down in the _____.
- In _____ mountain areas, voters arrived on horseback.
- I refuse to _____ over the price.
- I could see _____ mountains way off in the distance.
- Fossil bones of _____ kangaroo species are met with; these kangaroos must have been of enormous size, twice or thrice that of any species now living.
- _____ mountains surround the city.