CAN YOU UNDERSTAND THIS TEXT?

- a Read the article once. Do you know any more words which are American English, not British English?

British & American English –

the same, but different

British and American people speak the same language – English, but with some small differences.

VOCABULARY

Some words are different in American English, for example Americans say zip code, not postcode, vacation, not holiday, and cell phone, not mobile phone. Some words have different meanings, for example in British English a purse is a thing where women have their money and credit cards. In American English a purse is a woman's bag.

SPELLING

Colour, favour, and other words that end in -our in British English end with -or in American English, e.g. color, favor. Centre, theatre, and other words that end in -tre in British English end with -ter in American English, e.g. center, theater.

GRAMMAR

American grammar is very similar to British grammar, but with some small differences, especially prepositions. For example, Americans say See you Friday, but British people say See you on Friday.

PRONUNCIATION

The most important difference between American and British English is pronunciation. American accents and British accents are quite different, and when an American starts speaking British people know he or she is American, and vice versa.

- b Look at the highlighted words in the text and guess their meaning.
- c Read the article again. Mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).
- 1 American English and British English are very different.
 - 2 Holiday and postcode are the same in British and American English.
 - 3 Purse has different meanings in American and British English.
 - 4 Kilometer is British spelling.
 - 5 British and American grammar are not very different.
 - 6 It's difficult to know from their accent if a person is English or American.
