

External and Internal Conflict

Choose external or internal in the drop-down menu for each example of conflict. Remember to click “save for later” if not finished.

1. The character must face a dragon to save the princess.
2. The character hates the way she looks in the mirror.
3. The character has a big project due and none of his group is working as hard as he is on it.
4. The character’s cat gets out of the house and runs away.
5. The character gets into a major car accident and must recover physically.
6. The character wants to dye her hair, but her parents won’t let her.
7. The character wants to get an A in his Reading class.
8. The character wants to get a part in the school musical, but he is very shy.
9. The character needs to stop another character from hurting her friend.
10. The character needs to solve the mystery of why students are disappearing.