

Searching for the Best Buy

Diandre

Diandre likes clothes but is careful how he spends his money. He can only budget $25.00 a week for clothes. Diandre watches for sales. He buys a lot of T-shirts because he wears them to work, at home, or when he goes out with friends. When the weather is colder he layers T-shirts under sweaters to keep warm.

Which is the best buy?
