

UNIT 2. GEOGRAPHY OF EUROPE

MOUNTAINS

1. Write the names of the European mountain ranges on the map.

Carpathian Mountains Pyrenees Alps Scandinavian Mountains
Ural Mountains Caucasus Mountains

2. Put the mountains in order, from the tallest at the top to the shortest at the bottom.

ETNA
MATTERHORN
ELBRUS
MONT BLANC
TEIDE

1
2
3
4
5

3. Complete the text about European mountains.

The _____ stretch across eight countries, from France to Slovenia.

The _____ Mountains form a border between Europe and Asia, and contain Mount _____, the highest peak in Europe.

The _____ Mountains are in central Europe. The Danube runs between them and the _____ Mountains at a place called the Iron Gate.

Mount _____, on the Italian island of Sicily, is Europe's most active _____. It is also very tall.

