Reading

For each question, choose the correct answer. You can use names more than once.

What's in your school bag?

Tina

I've got all my school books and my pencil case, of course! And I've got my water bottle, a tuna sandwich and my hat. I haven't got my gloves. They're at home. Oh, and yes, I've got my wallet and my phone.

Reynold

OK, I've got my school books and ... I've got my keys, my phone and my water bottle. I've got a banana and an orange, too. Here's my laptop for lectures. I've got my gloves and I've got my coat. I haven't got my scarf or my hat.

Steven

Well, I've got my school books and all my school things. And I've got my watch, my keys and a table tennis paddle for my club. I haven't got my phone. It's at home. And I've got a banana and some chocolate. I'm always hungry!

Janice

In my bag today, I've got my school books, of course, and my new pencil case. And I've got my sister's water bottle because I haven't got one and she's got two! I haven't got my gloves but I've got my scarf and hat. I've got my keys and an orange, too.

Which person:

- borrowed something from their sibling?
- has a small case for money?
- has no mobile in their bag?
- has a constant desire to eat?
- plays ping pong?
- will have fish today?
- carries an extra gadget for studying?