Read the following texts and answer the questions below based on the information from the text. (1 point each correct answer)

John: Hi Miriam! Are you doing anything?

Miriam: I was bored, so I decided to paint a little bit.

John: Really?! I didn't know you knew how to draw and paint.

Miriam: I do it every once in a while.

John: How long have you known how to do that?

Miriam: I first learned how to do it high school.

John: Did you take some sort of art class or something?

Miriam: Yes, I did. That was my favorite class-do you like doing anything in your free time?

John: I play the piano, you know. I took classes for two or three years. Then, I stopped because I started college. My father has a piano and I used to play it all the time. Now, I sometimes play the piano.

Miriam: Oh, I know! I'd like to learn how to play an instrument. I really like the guitar or the saxophone. Don't you know of a place where I can take classes?

John: There's an art school in town called Art Pop. They teach a lot of different things, from painting and drawing to dancing and playing instruments such as the drums, the guitar, and the violin. We could go there and ask.

Tips for better use of Facebook

_____ This is a simple thing to do to keep your Facebook profile proactive. Right at the top of the page, there is a place where you can "write something". Once a day or even once a few days is enough. But update it enough to keep your page interesting.	_____ Ever since Facebook became a development platform, thousands of apps have been built to add to your Facebook page. As noted in the introduction, these range from trivial to very useful apps. The best tip here is to find apps that complement your interests.
_____ To effectively use Facebook, we recommend you set up some groups so that you can filter content. One person who does this very well is our own Marshall Kirkpatrick. Marshall says that he generally scans his Facebook homepage first, then clicks to his groups for family and old friends from school.	_____ This almost go without saying, but adding multimedia makes your Facebook profile more interesting and attractive. You can also have your own albums to share with your friends and family. When you find an app you like, you can add it to your profile
