

Revision

Module 4

A. Circle the correct words

1. Jack had a car accident and hurt / sprained his back.
2. Luckily, all the climbers were dead / alive.
3. I took a taxi home. My dad couldn't take / pick me up.
4. Last week Ian couldn't write because he had a problem with his wrist / ankle.
5. I was sleeping when suddenly / however I heard a strange noise.
6. When Tom heard that his grandmother had an accident, he was embarrassed / shocked.
He couldn't believe it!
7. When I was a child, I was very interested / crazy in space travel and I wanted to become a planetarium / an astronaut.
8. Lisa crashed / carried into a tree!

B. Complete with can, can't, could or couldn't

1. Lisa swim well when she was young, but now she's a very good swimmer.
2. I think William is a good cyclist and he win the race.
3. Yesterday my brother sprained his ankle and now he walk.
4. A: you climb that tree in the garden?
B: Well, I when I was young, but not any more.

C. Complete with the Past Continuous (was/ were V+ing) of the verbs in the clean watch have chase

1. Martha TV until late last night.
2. Yesterday morning I my room.
3. you lunch when I called you?
4. The children a cat in the garden when I arrived home.

E. Complete the sentences below. Use used to and the verbs in the box.

have be live

1. When I was a child, I afraid of snakes.
2. Paula in Paris. Now she lives in Rome.
3. Diane short hair. Now, her hair is long.

G. Complete the sentences with adverbs (adjective+ly).

1. My father drives very (careful).
2. My grandmother gets tired (easy).
3. Jane can draw very (good).

F. Complete the dialogue with the sentences a-e.

- a. Well, when I was closing the window, I slipped and fell.
- b. It's a long story.
- c. Luckily, there wasn't anyone or anything there.
- d. What's the matter with you?
- e. It was coming from the living room.

- Tina Hi, Bill. (1)
- Bill I broke my arm.
- Tina But how did it happen?
- Bill (2) Last night I decided to stay at home because it was raining. Suddenly, I heard a strange noise. (3)
- Tina What did you do?
- Bill Well, I was frightened but I slowly went in there and switched on the light. (4)
- Tina So, what was it?
- Bill The rain. A window was open and there was water all over the floor!
- Tina Water? And what about your arm?
- Bill (5)
- Tina Poor you!