

7ET2U1 – Poem -The Age of Chivalry - Alliteration

Alliteration is the repetition of the same sound at the start of a series of words in succession whose purpose is to provide an audible pulse that gives a piece of writing a lulling, lyrical, and/or emotive effect.

Select the alliterated words from the lines.

when knights were bold they deemed themselves being worthy on all of their opponents and foes

Yes, it was far back in those days of yore in a one to one combat defying death that courage and strength came to the fore

And in fighting for their country, faith and king that even through the ages are held in high esteem highlighting aspects of human wisdom related to virtue and vice and the lessons to be learnt are those of goodness and sacrifice.
