

Read and select the name of the electronic gadget.

You put these on your head to listen to music.

You use this to recharge electronic gadgets.

You use this to time activities.

You use this to play electronic games.

You use this to see people on your computer screen.

You use this to listen to music.

You use this to do maths.

You use this to save photos, documents and music.

You use this like a computer.

You use this in a car to find places.