

Practice 1: Listen and write ONE WORD ONLY

Rock art

Why rock art is important to researchers

It provides evidence about

- evolution
 - (31)
- Firstly is signal word "paraphrased as "the way people evolve"
 - Secondly is signal word

Global similarities in rock art

- humans often had large (32)
- animals were common, but a (33) was always drawn from the side or from above
- unlikely that contact through (34) resulted in similar artistic styles

Why our ancestors produced rock art

Research suggests rock art was produced

- firstly for reasons of (35)
 - later for social, spiritual and (36) reasons.
- In question 36, wait for the word in parallel structure which might be in different order

Questions 37-40: write ONE WORD ONLY

What TWO images drawn by Aboriginal people show their contact with Europeans?

- (37)
- (38)

Which human activities does the lecturer say are the main threats to Aboriginal rock art?

- (39)
 - vandalism
 - (40)
- "...is one of the key reasons"
 - "...is also"
 - Be careful because there are causes from the nature as well

Practice 2: Listen and write ONE WORD ONLY

- Wait for the name of "Mark Granovetter" to focus
- Wait for the first word in list (information science), but be cautious
- "Similar enough" là cụm từ có nghĩa là đủ sự tương đồng về. Nếu không hiểu được chính xác nghĩa và loại thông tin, em sẽ làm sai. Paraphrase được sử dụng là gì?
- Dựa vào từ nào mà em có thể đoán được từ cần điền của câu 33 là plural noun?
- Các từ nào là paraphrases của động từ benefit trong câu 34?