

Choose the correct alternative.

A: What's your new boss like, Gail?

B: Well, I know I (1) should / shouldn't say this, but she's a bit strange.

A: Why's that? (2) Do you have to / Must you work very hard?

B: Oh no, it's just that she has some strange rules.

A: Like what?

B: Well, for example, we (3) don't have to/mustn't wear anything blue. It's unlucky for her.

A: Really? She (4) has to / shouldn't tell you what to wear.

B: I know! But it's not all bad. At least we (5) have to / don't have to work on Saturday any more. She thinks the weekend (6) must / should be a time for rest.

A: True! Oh, that reminds me: I (7) must / mustn't book my holiday this weekend.

B: Yes, you (8) don't have to / have to do it soon or you won't get the discount for booking early.
