

HALLOWEEN REBUS

A is for  that hang on strings, and B is a  with weblike wings. C is for  CIDER, a drink that's good; and D is for  , another food. E is an  Ear of corn, picked in the fall; F is for False Faces, worn by all. G is a  who is never seen; and H, of course, is for Halloween. I is an  ; do you know this fellow? J,  , is round and yellow. K is a  of witch's brew; L is a  and autumn  too. M is for Man in the  , no doubt; and N is for Night, when pranksters are out. O is for  , too sleepy to fly; P is for  and Pumpkin Pie. Q is for Quill; R,  (called "bunny"), and S is a  ; isn't he funny? T is for Trick or Treat again. U for Umbrella, in case of rain. V is for Voices that cry in the dark. W,  ; she's out on a lark. X marks the spot of a celebration, and Y is the  decoration. Z is for the Zig-Zag line that you see around this  Halloween Rhyme.