1. Put the email in the right order.

Love,
Esther xxxxxx

Hello Andrea,
How is everything going? I hope you' re keeping well. Thanks for your last email. This time I' m writing to tell you about the Seville April Fair.

Last week I went to Seville with my family. We heard many good things about that fair, so we decided to see why it has become that famous.

The streets were decorated with colourful lanterns and there were hundreds of " casetas" where families and friends enjoy all together eating, drinking and dancing the typical Andalusian dance called "sevillanas". Most of women were dressed up with their beautiful flamenco outfits, which were full of colour, flounces and polka dots. Also, they wore a flower on their hair. We took a lot of pictures of this great fair! I have attached some of theme in this email.

From: Esther (estherrr@gmail.com)
To: Andrea (andreaandrea@gmail.com)

Well, that' s all for now. Please, say Hi to your parents. Talk to you soon.

Subject: Seville April Fair

2. Match the expressions from the reading to functions.

EXPRESSIONS	FUNCTIONS
a. I hope you're keeping well	1. Send greeting to others
b. Please say Hi to…	2. Express your intentions
c. How is everything going?	3. Say goodbye
d. Talk to you soon	4. Greet the other person
e. Hello	5. Ask for general information

LIVEWORKSHEETS