Reading and Listening Comprehension Practice 3c

Reading comprehension

Read the email and decide if the statements are R (right), W (wrong) or DS (doesn't say).

Hi Bianca,

What are you doing this weekend? Are you free on Friday evening? I am having a sleepover at my house with Chloe. Do you want to come, too? Before we have the sleepover, we are going shopping at Rose Hill Shopping Centre and then to the cinema to see the new animation film. The film starts at 6:15 pm. I'm so excited to see it!

After that, we can go and have dinner at Marco's Italian Restaurant. The pizza is delicious there! Then, at the sleepover we will read magazines, listen to music and play lots of games. It will be so much fun! The next morning, we can go to the new amusement park if you want to. They have some amazing roller coasters there.

OK, I have to go now because I have to do my homework. Let me know about Friday.

Bye for now,

Amy
