

CREATING QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS WITH DO AND DOES

Q. WHY am I doing this activity?

A. I am doing this activity TO SHOW my teacher that I can create questions and answers with DO and DOES.

THE RULE = Do / Does + the base form of the main verb!

Exercise 1: Choose the correct question. Type it correctly into the box.

IMPORTANT: Don't forget to type the correct question exactly as you see it.

E.g., Does your sister likes third lunch? Does your sister like third lunch?

Does your sister like third lunch?

1. Do your friends liking ice cream? Do your friends like ice cream? Does your friends like ice cream?

2. Does your brother eats pizza? Does your brother eat pizza? Do your brother eat pizza?

3. Do many people like onions? Does many people like onions? Does many people likes onions?

4. Do you think the library is a good place to study? Do you thinks the library is a good place to study?

5. Does Dr. Smith teach math? Does Dr. Smith teaches math? Does Dr. Smith teaches math?

6. Does the students understand the new story? Do the students understands the new story?
Do the students understand the new story?

7. Does Daniela walks to school? Does Daniela walk to school? Do Daniela walk to school?