Subjects and Predicates

Every sentence is made up of two basic parts: the subject and the predicate. The subject of each sentence tells whom or what the sentence is about. The predicate of the sentence tells something about the subject. It tells what the subject did, or what happens.

GRAMMAR LESSON

Subject (Who or What)	Predicate (Did or Happens)
Several hornets	buzzed around the table.
The new bus driver	seems friendly.
My friends	will be here soon.
