

Hello, I'm Wilma Flintstone. I'm going to tell you about my everyday life back in Stone Age.

Every morning, I cleaned our house and cooked food. I sometimes walked to the supermarket and carried the groceries back home. I usually played with my Pebble and when Fred arrived home from work I prepared lunch.

In the afternoon, I often visited my friend Betty Rubble and talked about our day. Fred and Barney always joined us and we watched a movie at the cinema. We loved movies and picnics.

We didn't wear shoes and socks back then and we didn't have computers and mobile phones. We didn't drive modern cars and we didn't go to sports centres to keep fit.

We enjoyed our lives back in Stone Age.

Look at the verbs in red. How do they change in the past tense?
Can you form the past tense of the following verbs?

listen

jump

like

hurry

open

dance

phone

finish

