Clothes: phrasal verbs

1 Order the letters and write the phrasal verbs. Then match them with the pictures.

a [5] kate fof — take off

b [ ] evig yawa — _____

c [ ] tup no — _____

d [ ] upt waya — _____

e [ ] teg toni — _____

f [ ] worth yaaw — _____

2 Underline the correct words.

I need to go with / look for a new top to wear to Jodie's party.

a I think these jeans will fit you. Why don't you try them on / wear them out?

b At the summer sales she managed to look for / pick up a designer handbag for half price.

c These boots are so strong and well made that it takes years to wear them out / try them on.

d I'm not sure if the blue shoes go with / look for your black jacket.

e When you don't know what to buy, you can ask the sales clerk to pick up something / pick something out for you.

4 Complete the sentences with the phrasal verbs in the box.

get into	give away	~~look for~~
pick out	put away	wear out

Let's go shopping. I need to look for a new jacket.

a If you don't like those clothes any more, _____ them _____ or take them to a thrift store.

b Can I _____ some earrings for you to wear with that dress?

c Do you get rid of your clothes when you're bored with them or do you keep them until you _____ them _____?

d I will have to buy some bigger clothes. I can't _____ this dress any more.

e There are clothes all over the floor. Can you _____ them _____?

3 Match the sentences a-f with the responses 1-6.

a [3] It's cold.

b [ ] Do you think this sweater will fit me?

c [ ] It's hot in here.

d [ ] Do you like my sweater?

e [ ] This sweater has holes in it.

f [ ] I want a cashmere sweater.

1 Take your sweater off.

2 Throw it away.

3 Put your sweater on.

4 Try it on.

5 Try to pick one up during the sales.

6 Yes, it goes well with your jeans.

LIVEWORKSHEETS