

fall for	sort out	have much on	brush aside	keep on
do away with	get away with	come up against	turn up	put off
bring up	give in	leave out	get on	cut off
chase up	broken down	call off	look after	come across

1. Cars' CO2 emissions will /continue/ _____ increasing.
2. Doors were /smashed/ _____, the musical instruments of a dance troupe were destroyed, as was a sound system
3. However, sometimes your body cannot /get rid of/ _____ enough CO2.
4. I don't /have a lot to do/ _____ this afternoon.
5. I /communicate/ _____ well with Max.
6. It'll look bad if you /check/ _____ a client for an invoice that's actually settled, but it's worse for your business if you leave them unpaid all together.
7. It's easy to /get fooled by/ _____ such tricks.
8. Journalists usually know what information to add and /omit/ _____.
9. No one should /remain unpunished/ _____ corruption.
10. Security robots will be able to cooperatively surround intruders and /block/ _____ exits.
11. Snakes can /appear/ _____ anywhere, even in the cities.
12. Successful people never /postpone/ _____ until tomorrow something they can do today.
13. The first thing you will certainly need to /tackle/ _____ is life insurance.
14. Tough questions can /initiate/ _____ even tougher answers.
15. We should not /disregard/ _____ discussions of gun policy as too politically difficult.
16. We will /take care of/ _____ you, help you.
17. What I don't understand is why they didn't just /cancel/ _____ the wedding.
18. You might also not want to compromise or /tolerate/ _____.
19. Your long-distance relationship can /face/ _____ some problems.
20. You're going to /confront/ _____ fierce competition.