

Bonfire Night

Read, Listen and Match:

King James I

Bonfire

Gunpowder

Guy Fawkes

Parliament

Puppet

Sparklers

Fireworks

Bonfire Night

When do they celebrate Bonfire night?

5th September 5th November 5th December

What do they eat?

toffee apples chips hot dogs fish
sandwiches jacket potatoes popcorn

What do children make ?

a puppet lunch a cake

What do they use to do it?

old papers old clothes old letters

Where do they have dinner at Bonfire Night?

In the dining room In the kitchen Outside

What do they do at the bonfire?

They light fireworks They play with the puppet
They play with sparklers They burn the puppet
They watch the fireworks They dance around the fire

Read and order:

Handwriting practice area with six sets of dashed lines for writing.

Guy Fawkes and other man made a secret plan: They wanted to blow up the Parliament with the King and his Ministers inside.

King James I ordered to light bonfires to celebrate the plot's failure

King's soldiers arrested Guy Fawkes and other men.
They were executed for treason.

But someone informed the King about the plot

In November 1605, Catholics were angry because King James I didn't want them to practise their religion.

They decided to put some barrels of gunpowder in the cellar of the Parliament

