

Listening comprehension worksheet

Name: _____ Grade: _____

Date: _____

Global warming

Global warming is the biggest _____ in the world today. Everyone knows about it but not everyone is trying to _____. Many world leaders are more interested in blaming other _____ for the crisis. Countries like _____, India and Russia say they will not act unless America takes _____. America says it will not _____ until other countries take more action. It seems a little childish that _____ are acting in this way. The future of our world is at risk and _____ can only argue with each other. Many presidents and prime _____ tell us that _____ is the answer. They say future scientists will find solutions to save _____. This is a big gamble. I hope they are right. I don't believe them, so I'll continue switching off lights and _____.

more action

problem

governments

recycling

countries

leaders

the planet

ministers

stop it

China

technology

act

