

PRESENT SIMPLE OR PRESENT CONTINUOUS

Instructions: Which sentences are about something that is generally, usually or always true (G); happening now or around now (N)?

- | | |
|---|-------------------|
| 1. I always go to the bar on Fridays. |  G  |
| 2. He's changing the light bulb. |   |
| 3. She sings very good English songs. |   |
| 4. Neymar is dominating the ball. |   |
| 5. Polar bears live in the Arctic. |   |
| 6. I'm writing a poem for literature class. |   |

Instructions: Underline the correct word.

1. She's good at languages. She speaks / She's speaking Chinese and Russian.
2. Their home is in Vietnam -but this month they stay / They're staying in Paris.
3. I want to keep fit so I always go / I'm always going to the gym every Tuesday.
4. Is there anything you want? Kate writes / Kate is writing a shopping list.
5. I usually write / I'm usually writing my blog every morning. In fact, I blog / I'm blogging now!
6. Seb and Olga are both doing a course this month. He studies / He's studying Bussiness and Marketing and she does / she's doing Economics.
7. Matteo texts / Matteo is texting all our Friends about tonight's party.