Summaries

After young Riley is uprooted from her Midwest life and moved to San Francisco, her emotions - Joy, Fear, Anger, Disgust and Sadness - conflict on how best to navigate a new city, house, and school.

Growing up can be a bumpy road, and it's no exception for Riley, who is uprooted from her Midwest life when her father starts a new job in San Francisco. Like all of us, Riley is guided by her emotions - Joy, Fear, Anger, Disgust and Sadness. The emotions live in Headquarters, the control center inside Riley's mind, where they help advise her through everyday life. As Riley and her emotions struggle to adjust to a new life in San Francisco, turmoil ensues in Headquarters. Although Joy, Riley's main and most important emotion, tries to keep things positive, the emotions conflict on how best to navigate a new city, house and school.

What feeling does this movie generate?

Peter awakens to find his father's charred body and encounters a nude man. He is then chased by a now-possessed Annie into the attic. Levitating, Annie beheads herself with the piano wire as naked coven members and a shocked Peter watch.

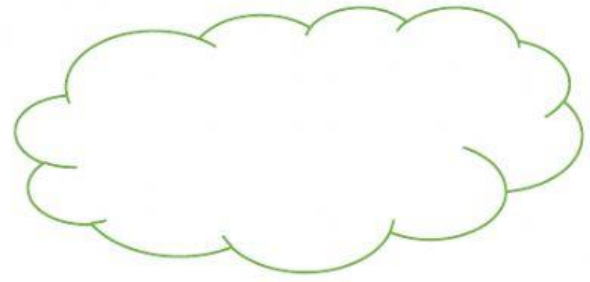

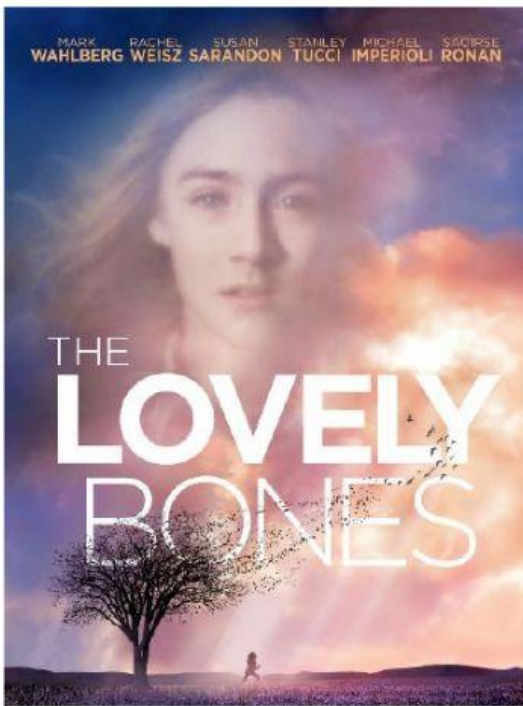

Fiona Is An Ogre - Shrek (2001)

The animated comedy Shrek is a very clever subversion of fairy tale stories with the titular ogre forced to play the role of a brave knight in order to get his swamp back. He is sent on a mission to save Princess Fiona from a dragon then return her to her fiancé.

But while Fiona appears to be a typical Disney animated princess, it is revealed that she is actually an ogre as well. This leads to Shrek and Fiona falling in love and learning a valuable lesson about what beauty really is.

Based on the novel 'From My Heaven', by Alice Sebold, it is about a 14-year-old girl named Susie Salmon who is murdered and who sees from heaven how the lives of her family and friends change after the terrible event. A detective will try to solve the case, while the murderer erases all the clues and prepares to kill again.

Another historical winner from Tony Robinson

Excellent and engaging series of programmes focusing on various distasteful professions from the different ages of England since (roughly) 1066.

Once again Tony Robinson (of Blackadder fame) takes his interest in history down another avenue from his Time Team series. Whether it be Tudor or Georgian or any of the other ages of the past 900 years or so one is able to get a glimpse of the jobs on the lower rung of the ladder. Not only does Mr Robinson speak in his usual easy manner of the facts behind his choices but also gets his hands dirty by having a go himself. Swallowing a toad or being knee-high in urine to step into the shoes of those from the past do not deter him from realising the former hardships that once affected individuals whose task it was to perform these duties. Not for the squeamish indeed.
