

Vocabulary: Adjectives

1. Match the moods and feelings adjectives (1-8) to those that have similar meanings (A-H)

1 surprised	A scared
2 tired	B grateful
3 worried	C amazed
4 thankful	D embarrassed
5 frightened	E exhausted
6 calm	F stressed
7 upset	G relaxed
8 uncomfortable	H disappointed

2. Choose the adjective that doesn't belong, and decide if it is P (positive) or N (negative).

1 disappointed	brave	confused	P
2 hopeful	proud	stressed
3 relaxed	confused	disappointed
4 embarrassed	grateful	scared
5 amazed	scared	brave

3. Choose the correct adjective

- 1 I didn't enjoy the film. It was really disappointed / disappointing.
- 2 Toby was embarrassing / embarrassed when he fell over in the school corridor.
- 3 We find Melissa so annoying / annoyed. We've decided not to hang out with her anymore.
- 4 My new Saturday job is pretty tired / tiring. I'm always exhausted in the evening!
- 5 I'm bored / boring of tennis. I think I might try something new and exciting instead, like surfing.
- 6 Mum feels really relaxing / relaxed after a day at the spa.

4. Complete the sentences with the correct adjectives in brackets

- 1 Nicky feels tired. She's had a really tiring day. (tired / tiring)
- 2 The exam results were disappointing. Our teacher said she was very disappointed with us. (disappointed / disappointing)
- 3 I'm so confused by what I'm supposed to do to set up my new phone. Why are instructions always so confusing? (confused / confusing)
- 4 My little brother can be really embarrassing. He embarrassed me so much when he danced in front of my friends! (embarrassed / embarrassing)
- 5 I find Mikey pretty boring these days since he became obsessed with his new video game. I'm bored of his company! (bored / boring)