The words and phrases in the box are all connected to the theme of the law.
Work with your partner and categorize them under the headings in the table.

arson attorney award damages burglary community service cross-examine embezzlement fine jail sentence lawsuit libel manslaughter probation return a verdict solitary confinement speeding sue the accused to sentence weigh up the evidence

| crimes | punishments | people | legal processes |
|---|---|---|---|
| | | | |

Complete the sentences with words and phrases from the table

a Slander is when you say something about someone which isn't true. _____ is when you publish it, and that's when people generally take action.
b If a person is on trial, the media must refer to them as _____ .
c You _____ someone to claim money from them if they have harmed you in some way.
d The jury has to listen to the case, _____ , and then _____ .
e An _____ is the person who represents you in court.
f _____ can be anything from teaching kids to play soccer to cutting the grass. Obviously, it's not paid.
g Once the prosecution has questioned a witness, the defense has the possibility to _____ him or her.

a _____ b_____ c_____ d_____ e_____ f_____ g _____

Write down some new words for you and translate them into your own language.

LIVEWORKSHEETS