

Regions Quiz

Drag and drop

Regions

bodies of water

geographers

Human (social)

physical features

cultural climate

economic vegetation

social

For a better study of the world, 1 divided the world into regions or area that have shared characteristics.

2 can be defined by some features including Language, political divisions, religions, and vegetation.

We can define a region by its 3 or its human 4 features

Physical features identify a region by its 5 , climate,

Landforms, 6 , and fauna.

The 7 is a good way to identify a regions because it influences many other aspects of a place. It can determine what kind of animals and plants will live in the area.

8 features are divided into cultural and economic.

9 features can be group together areas where people share the same Language, history, gastronomy, culture or traditions.

10 features are everything that has to do with work and money Like agriculture, Livestock, or industry.