

1.

E Complete the dialogues with the phrases a-g.

A: Erm, Fred? 1

B: In my room. Why?

A: Can I use it? I want to download an app.

B: 2 You don't know how to use the Internet, Danny.

A: Please, Fred. 3

B: Oh, OK! But please be careful.

A: Um, Fred? 4

B: What? Let me see!

A: I'm so sorry!

B: Oh, those? 5

A: Really?

B: Yep! My dad has got them. 6

A: Phew! 7

a. Don't worry about it.

b. I didn't use to know how to use it, but I do now.

c. It's a good thing he can help.

d. Where is your laptop?

e. He can send them to me by email.

f. Forget it!

g. I deleted some pictures.

2.

Hi! I'm Linda. Like a lot of kids my age, I love watching my favourite TV programmes after school. These days, I'm watching a new American soap opera. It's called School Life and it's on every Monday and Wednesday at 6 p.m. My brother, Kevin, loves watching cartoons, but I can't stand them. On weekdays, we don't watch a lot of TV - just about two hours - but that's OK. At the weekend, we usually watch TV for about six hours. On Saturday evening there's a sitcom on channel 11. It's really funny, and my brother and I always watch it together.

1. School Life is a(n)

2. School Life is on twice a week at

3. Linda really dislikes watching

4. Linda and Kevin can only watch TV for on weekdays.

5. Linda and Kevin enjoy watching a(n) together.

3.

Hi Carl,

How are you? Guess what! I'm taking a karate class! I know you're crazy about karate, too! My class is every Wednesday evening from 6.00 until 7.30. There are twelve other kids in my class: seven boys and five girls. Some of them are a bit shy, but the others are really outgoing. Our instructor, Mr Stevens, is very friendly. He teaches us different karate moves every week. Some are easy and others are difficult, but we always have lots of fun together. Karate is good exercise, so at the end of the class I'm always tired. The bad news is that I can't go to my class this week. I have a physics exam on Thursday, so this week I'm studying in the evenings after school. But right now, I'm getting ready to go to the skatepark! There's a rollerblading competition today! Bye for now,
Billy

1. Carl is really into karate.
2. Billy has a two-hour karate class once a week.
3. All the students in the karate lesson are very outgoing.
4. Billy isn't tired after his karate class.

How many students are there in the karate class?

What is Billy's karate teacher like?

Why is Billy studying every evening this week?

Where is Billy going now?