Listen to three conversations about crimes. What kind of crimes are the speakers talking about?

Conversation 1: _____ Conversation 2: _____ conversation 3: _____

Look at the sentences. Which of the conversations (1–3) do they come from?

a The verdict we returned was unanimous: guilty.
b That's a lesson I won't forget in a hurry.
c The best person to ask is Mike Zurack.
d It was fascinating, seeing how a court works.
e It's been almost three weeks since they published the article.

Listen to each conversation again and answer these questions or choose the best option

Conversation 1

a) Why is the woman hesitating?
The only reason she's hesitating is because she _____ any more _____.
b) When was the article published? _____ ago
c) Who does the woman have to talk to if she wants a second opinion?
If she wants a second opinion she must talk to _____

Conversation 2

a) What is the man should have said?
"Yes, officer. I'm sorry, but I don't think I wasn't speeding."
"Yes, officer. I'm sorry, but I was in a terrible hurry."

b) How fast was the man driving?
100 miles an hour
100 km an hour
1000 miles an hour

c) What would happen if the man did that again?
He would _____ his _____
d) How much was the ticket? $ _____
e) What is better than lose money for the man? it's better to _____ than lose money.

Conversation 3

a) How long did the trial last? _____
b) Where did the jury have to stay overnight? In a hostel in a hotel in a motel
c) What was the verdict? The verdict the jury returned was unanimous: guilty innocent

LIVEWORKSHEETS