I was at home on Friday night. I used to hate Friday evenings at home. But I actually had a lot of fun this Friday. My friend Dan visited and we watched video clips all evening. We ate popcorn and pizza while we were watching the clips. I think Dan enjoyed the evening, too. Good music, food and friends- If you ask me, there's nothing better than that.

The Hampton Music Festival last week was wonderful. There were bands from all over the country. My favourite was a jazz band. In my opinion, they had an amazing trumpet player. The people in the audience were dancing when she started playing her solo piece. When they heard her, they stopped and just stood there listening to her. It seems everyone thought she was fantastic.
