

SENTENCES: SIMPLE, COMPOUND AND COMPLEX- PART 1

1. She wrote a novel.

1. How many subjects are there in this sentence? _____
 - a. one
 - b. two
2. How many verbs are there in this sentence? _____
 - a. one
 - b. two
3. What kind of sentence is this one? _____
 - a. simple
 - b. compound
 - c. complex
4. How many clauses does this sentence have? _____
 - a. one
 - b. two

2. James and Sam have solved the questions easily and correctly in 5 minutes

1. How many subjects are there in this sentence? _____
 - a. one
 - b. two
 - c. three
2. What kind of subject is this one? _____
 - a. simple subject
 - b. compound subject
3. How many verbs are there in this sentence? _____
 - a. one
 - b. two
4. What kind of predicate does this sentence have? _____
 - a. simple predicate
 - b. compound predicate
5. What kind of sentence is this one? _____
 - a. simple
 - b. compound
 - c. complex
6. How many phrases are there? _____
 - a. three
 - b. four
 - c. five
7. How many clauses does this sentence have? _____
 - a. one
 - b. two

3. We stopped and asked for directions around noon.

Questions

- How many subjects are there in this sentence? _____
 - one
 - two
 - three
- What kind of subject is this one? _____
 - simple subject
 - compound subject
- How many verbs are there in this sentence? _____
 - one
 - two
- What kind of predicate does this sentence have? _____
 - simple predicate
 - compound predicate
- What kind of sentence is this one? _____
 - simple
 - simple with compound subject
 - simple with compound predicate
 - compound
 - complex
- How many phrases are there? _____
 - two
 - three
 - four
- How many clauses does this sentence have? _____
 - one
 - two

4. Tom and Harry have been writing and publishing horror novels for years.

- How many subjects are there in this sentence? _____
 - one
 - two
 - three
- What kind of subject is this one? _____
 - simple subject
 - compound subject
- How many verbs are there in this sentence? _____
 - one
 - two
- What kind of predicate does this sentence have? _____
 - simple predicate
 - compound predicate
- What kind of sentence is this one? _____
 - simple
 - simple with compound subject
 - simple with compound predicate
 - simple with compound subject and compound predicate
 - compound
 - complex
- How many phrases are there? _____
 - two
 - three
 - four
- How many clauses does this sentence have? _____
 - one
 - two