Verbs Conjugation A

VERBS. ACTIVE -Ω, PASSIVE -ΟΜΑΙ

When it comes to forming sentences and thoughts in the Greek language, verbs are one of the most important components! In order to form a verb, we need to change it according to the person(s) they refer to, the number, the tense, the mood, the voice and the conjugation group they belong to. In Greek, verb conjugation means to join a verb stem together with its ending. The endings are changing according to the rules mentioned above. That makes Greek verb conjugation simply, a set of verbs that all use the same ending! There are two major conjugation groups: Conjugation A and Conjugation B. Conjugation A includes verbs ending in -ω/Active voice and -ομαι/Passive voice. Most Greek verbs ending in -ω. That means that the 1st person singular present ending in -ω.
