

Read the texts and answer the questions below. Write only the letter of the text.

A) In the heart of the historical centre of Florence, a few minutes from the most important historical and artistic sites including Piazza della Signoria and the Ponte Vecchio, this delightful 3-star hotel offers its guests a comfortable yet traditionally Tuscan atmosphere. The Hotel Galileo is a haven of peace and tranquility while outside the bustling Via Nazionale is an ideal point from which to explore the best in Italian art and Florentine culture, all reachable on foot. The recently refurbished rooms are equipped with air-conditioning, satellite TV, room-safe and of course private facilities. Guests can fuel up for the day at the buffet breakfast and come evening, the half board option includes a 3 course dinner in the hotel restaurant. The hotel has an arrangement with a local garage who will park and deliver clients' cars on request.	B) Enjoying an idyllic setting in Mijas Costa, between Marbella and Fuengirola, this lovely hotel is an optimal destination for all those looking for sand and sun holiday. The supermarkets, bars and restaurants of Sitio de Calahonda are within a 5-minute walk. Puerto de Cabopino Port and the local golf courses are to be found within walking distance. This enchanting property is nestled within a 15-minute walk from the gorgeous Calahonda Beach. The apartment complex features a swimming pool, a hot tub and gym, ideal for those who crave for a peaceful and relaxing downtime. This attractive hotel offers 1, 2 and 3-bedroom apartments designed to make guests' stay as enjoyable as possible. The air-conditioned units come complete with a fully-equipped kitchenette and modern comforts. Travellers may also wind down at the welcoming café with terrace, where to enjoy a tasty daily breakfast or sip a refreshing drink after a long day of sunbathing or sightseeing.
C) Contemporary hotel with good transport links, free WiFi and included breakfast Located in a quiet, suburban industrial park, Holiday Inn Express® Barcelona - Molins de Rei hotel is ideal for both business travellers and visitors on a city break. Barcelona-El Prat Airport is 15 minutes by car from the hotel, and it's a five-minute drive to the AP-2 highway. You can leave your car in one of the hotel's free parking spots and catch a train into the city centre from Molins de Rei station, a 10-minute walk from the front door. Central Barcelona is a 20-minute train ride away. In the city you can wander through the atmospheric narrow alleys of the Gothic Quarter, which are lined with tapas bars, and admire Antoni Gaudí's iconic Sagrada Família cathedral. Closer to home, Molins de Rei is a short stroll from the hotel and has numerous shops and bars. Football at Camp Nou is 20 minutes away by car. Here to work? The Holiday Inn Express® Barcelona - Molins de Rei hotel is in the El Pla industrial zone and close to several local businesses. All guests can keep up to speed with free WiFi, available throughout the hotel. If you need to host an event, you can make use of the naturally lit meeting room. Get off to a great start with the Express Start Breakfast buffet. After a busy day of sightseeing, relax with a chilled glass of wine in the lobby bar.	D) The Beaver Run Resort is a fantastic ski-in ski-out hotel where guests can spend their days exploring the mountain and then make the most of the extensive facilities at the hotel. The hotel even has its own shuttle service so guests can enjoy everything the village centre has to offer, just a short distance away. Combining a mountain with modern style, the Beaver Run has a relaxing atmosphere and as one of the biggest hotels in Breckenridge, has 515 slopeside rooms and suites to suite all group sizes and types. The spacious accommodation features private bathrooms with bath products and a hairdryer, a flat screen TV, WiFi and coffee maker. The Beaver Run provides a choice of dining options for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Proudly serving Colorado game and seafood, Spencer's dinner menu provides high quality dining on the mountain with a friendly and comfortable atmosphere. Elsewhere, the Base 9 Bar is a great place to enjoy small plates and craft beers. There is also the Coppertop Bar and Cafe for spectacular views, live music and delicious apres ski fare, whilst the Skywalk Market, provides the opportunity to grab a quick bite or snack before hitting the slopes. Guests looking for rest and relaxation after a day on the slopes can head to the spa and wellness area which boasts a large pool, hot tubs, massages, skin care and body treatments.

1. Where can you get to the city center on foot?.....
2. Which lodging offers a self-catering possibility?.....
3. Where can you enjoy historical architecture? .....
4. Where is a full-board catering option? .....
5. Where can you listen to a concert? .....
6. Where can a conference take place? .....
7. Which place provides the most facilities? .....