

Arguments (topic sentences)	Justifications
1. As I see it, travelling is best form of education.	a. In other words, they rely on their cells in every aspect of their lives.
2. In my opinion, there are many advantages to choosing students' learning subjects in school.	b. Hardship makes one look at a problem and cope with it.
3. First, people are dependent on their cellphones.	c. First, they interrupt what one is watching, which is annoying. Second, they tempt one to buy things he doesn't necessarily need.
4. The way I see it, diversity is something positive and beneficial in every aspect of life.	d. If high school students choose their subjects, their motivation will increase. As a result, not only will their performance improve, but also their enthusiasm to come and study.
5. I strongly believe that each obstacle you face in life makes you stronger.	e. It gives you a chance to experience and accept things you aren't accustomed to.
6. I personally believe that there are many disadvantages for a long summer break.	f. You discover cultural differences, learn new languages and develop social skills and maturity. Furthermore, you gain independence and learn about yourself.
7. I think that television advertisements have many drawbacks.	g. It breaks the rhythm of study and causes students to forget material. What's more, it makes getting back into a routine very difficult.

