Welcome to Unit 2

We will be reading Bunnicula in class.
As we read you will be answering questions on the book and topics, we are discussing through out the book.

Preview the Text

TODAY VEGETABLES . . . TOMORROW THE WORLD!

BUNNICULA

A RABBIT-TALE OF MYSTERY

DEBORAH and JAMES HOWE
ILLUSTRATED by ALAN DANIEL

Based on the cover what do you think the novel is about?

What genre of novel do you think this is?

What do you think the main characters are?

Click "Save for Later"

LIVEWORKSHEETS

When authors want us to make an inference, they often try to use common knowledge about what their subject is to allow us to understand the underline meaning of the text.

What might influence what an author considers basic knowledge?

Consider the following items and list common facts about them.
Dogs

Cars

Smart phones

Think about this: Would someone outside of the United States know what the item was based on the common facts you listed?

Click "Save for Later"

Fill in the bubbles with stereotypes of cats you think everyone should know.

Stereotypes of a cat

Click "Finish"