

Name: _____ Date: _____

Grammar

Main Verbs and Helping Verbs

Theme: Law Courts of The Bahamas

The main verb shows the action (whether physical or mental) in a sentence.

The helping verb works with the main verb to show when the action occurred.

Read each sentence below. Identify the main verb and helping verb and write them below.

Sentence	Main Verb	Helping Verb
1. The Family Island Administrator can act as a judge on minor cases.
2. She has visited the Privy Council in London, England.
3. I am reading about the girls at the Willie Mae Pratt Girls' Center.
4. My neighbour across the street will go to the Magistrate Court for her divorce proceedings.
5. The members of the jury were chosen from the voters' list.
6. In the Supreme Court, the jury must listen to all the evidence during a trial.

