Hi, I'm William. I was born in Malawi.
I live in a small village in Malawi.
I really love reading. I always go to our school's library and learn new things.
One day, I read a book about wind energy. I used my bicycle and some materials and built a wind turbine.
We didn't have electricity last year.
But now, we can use wind energy to produce electricity. I think we shouldn't waste energy and water. We should protect animals and help them.
We should keep our environment clean.
We should go to work by our bicycles.
