Red Shoes

Once upon a time, lived a poor child, named Karen. She lived with her sick mother. One day, she found an abandoned box on a street. She opened the box and found a beautiful pair of red shoes in it.

She brought them home and showed them to her mother. But her mother asked Karen to return them. However, stubborn Karen hid the shoes under her bed.

One day, Karen's mother passed away. And Karen wore her red shoes at her mother's funeral. Everyone was angry because she wore red shoes, not black shoes.

A kind and old woman learned that Karen became an orphan. So, this old woman adopted her.
