Factors Leading Up to German Unification.

Many factors led up to the unification of the German States Below are a few examples. Try to link each picture to the correct explanation.

 The growth of railways...		...were part of a growing sense of German culture
 Publication of books like Grimm's Tales and Baedeker's Guide...		...increased calls for political change, including unification.
 The Revolutions of 1848...		increased trade and communication between the German States
 Wars in the Crimea and Italy...		...came to power believing that Germany could only be united by blood and iron.
 Otto Von Bismarck...		...began to upset the balance of power between the Great powers

LIVEWORKSHEETS