

Tradition Day

1) Listen and read.

Hi! I'm Chloe. I'm in Spain in my Exchange visit. I'm visiting the local town with my host family and my friend Elvira. We are walking around the local town. Oh look! There is a fiesta in the town square. Let's go and see!

There lots of music playing, and everyone are clapping with their hands. Men, women, boys and girls are starting to dance. We are watching them; it's a traditional country dance. They are amazing! The dancers are waving their arms in the air and spinning around. They are stepping to the left and to the right. They are stepping forward three steps and backwards three steps, they are spinning around again with their partners. They are spinning quickly, they are dancing beautifully.

- 1) Where is Chloe?
- 2) What is she waching?
- 3) Does she like the dance?
- 4) Do you know any traditional Argentinian dance?
