THIRD CONDITIONAL (IMPOSSIBLE)

REMEMBER

IF	CONDITION	RESULT
	PAST PERFECT	WOULD / WOULDN'T HAVE+ PAST PARTICIPLE
If	he had won the lottery,	he would have travelled around the world.

RESULT	IF	CONDITION
WOULD / WOULDN'T HAVE+ PAST PARTICIPLE		PAST PERFECT
He would have travelled around the world	if	he had won the lottery.

We use the third conditional for impossible situations as we use it to talk about the past and to imagine the result of this situation or imagine a different result of it.

DON'T FORGET past participle (regular verbs –ed, irregular verbs 3rd column).

Your turn!

1. If I _____ (win) the lottery, I _____ (buy) a bigger house to my mum.

2. If you _____ (see) a ghost, you _____ (scream) in panic.

3. She _____ (come) to the concert with us if Anne _____ (live) here.

4. If he _____ (have) her number, I _____ (call) her.

5. If I _____ (not be) sick, I _____ (go) to her party.

6. If he _____ (know) the answer, he _____ (tell) you.

7. You _____ (not pass) the exam if you _____ (not study) hardly.

8. If she _____ (not take) the umbrella, she _____ (get) wet.

9. I _____ (not arrive) late if I _____ (not be) ill.

10. If the bus _____ (not be) delayed, I _____ (not take) taxi.

11. They _____ (cook) dinner if we _____ (win) the bid.

12. If Peter _____ (know) all the answers, he _____ (win) the contest.

13. We _____ (go) to the jungle park if the weather _____ (be) nicer.

14. He _____ (not be) upset if she _____ (tell) him the truth.

15. She _____ (pass) the exam if she ever _____ (study).