

Modal Verbs – Must vs. Should

Fill in the gaps with the modal verbs must or should (negative or positive form).

1. You come to work in time.
2. Ethan, you play in the street!
3. You be eighteen years old to drive a car in Spain.
4. The museum rules say that you take photographs of the paintings.
5. You be quiet in the library.
6. The dentist says that you brush your teeth after every meal.
7. Mark stop drinking alcohol. It's not good for his health.
8. You look tired. I think you take a few days off.
9. Helen listen to her mum's piece of advice and break up with that guy.
10. You go on an organised trip if you do not know the place and do not speak the language.