

Last Name & Name:

Date:

Level:

GRAMMAR: INFINITIVES & GERUNDS

INSTRUCTIONS: Complete Lucia's letter and use gerunds and infinitives where necessary.

Hi Rebecca,

Well, I finally made a change! Last week I said to myself, "I _____ at our old kitchen walls one more day!" So I _____ them! My roommate Sara said we should _____ a plan before we do it. She even _____ a month or two to think about it. She said we should _____ first, but I already know how to paint. I don't _____. Anyway, I _____ new things. Finally, we _____ the kitchen a cheerful color—bright yellow! I'm not sure, but Sara _____ the new color. In fact, I don't think she _____! But I hope she does, because I _____ the living room next. I _____ it tomato red!
What do you think about that?

Lucia

INSTRUCTIONS: Complete each sentence with a gerund or infinitive and adjective from the box.

annoying	boring	depressing	enjoyable	exciting	relaxing
----------	--------	------------	-----------	----------	----------

- I've had the most stressful week at work! I need _____ a massage this weekend. I find it so _____.
- We don't want _____ tonight's game. Our favorite team is in the championship. It's going to be really _____!
- Most kids hate _____ shopping. They think it's not any fun and complain, "This is so _____."
- I had to ask a classmate to please quit _____ his pencil on the desk. I found it very _____.
- I don't feel like _____ that film. I hear it's very _____. I'm not in the mood for a sad movie.
- Max usually doesn't mind _____. He finds it pretty _____.