

The Mayan School

DUTCH CLAIMS

Fill in the blanks with the correct word or phrase from the Word Bank.

New Netherland Farmland Iroquois French Vast Forests
Algonquian Indians Hurons Iroquois Farm the land Europe

1. The biggest source of fur was the _____ of North America.
2. The first explorer for the Netherlands was an Englishman _____.
3. By 1614, land that now includes parts of New York and New Jersey was being called _____.
4. The Dutch were concerned that the Swedes would start trading with the _____.
5. As the English and Dutch moved into the Northeast, they competed with the _____ for the fur trade.
6. While the _____ were allied with the French, the _____ allied themselves with the English and Dutch.
7. In the late 1630s, Dutch settlers moved north on Manhattan Island and cleared more _____.
8. Late in the 1630s, when trade was still important, more settlers arrived with their families to _____.
9. In 1638, Sweden was one of the great powers of _____.