

REARRANGE THE STORY INTO ITS CORRECT ORDER. DRAG THE SENTENCES AND DROP THEM ON THE TABLE BELOW.

A	Justin was driving home after working late at the office.
B	It was a cold dark wet night in December
C	While he was looking around the car, he felt a strange presence that sent shivers down his spine.
D	He got out of the car and looked around, but there was nobody there.
E	He looked behind the car and under the car, but he couldn't find anything at all.
F	Suddenly, out of nowhere, a young woman stepped out in front of him.
G	Justin stepped hard on the brake, but it was too late.
H	The rain had stopped, and the moonlight was shining brightly.
I	She was wearing a long white dress and had long hair covering her face.
J	The road was clear, so, he drove fast to reach home quickly.
K	He was looking under his car when a truck stopped behind him, hence, Justin told the man what had happened.....
L	He had been helping his boss with some paperwork the entire day and now he was extremely exhausted.

NOW... THINK HOW DOES THE STORY CONTINUE...
