

Grammar training

To-infinitive

Which rule is it?

EXPRESSING PURPOSE

EXPRESSING NECESSITY

DESCRIBING EMOTIONS

EXPRESSING WILLINGNESS

EXPRESSING UNWILLINGNESS

REFERRING TO ONE'S CHARACTER

MAKING A COMMENT/JUDGEMENT

DESCRIBING AN UNEXPECTED EVENT

POSTMODIFIER WITH AN ABSTRACT NOUN

1. He spent months negotiating for a pay increase, only to resign from his job soon after he'd received it. _____

2. He donated the money to help the refugees fleeing Ukraine.
_____

3. I was given the chance to play the main part in the play.
_____

4. It was such an awful and insulting thing to say! Why would you say that?
_____

5. I need to work overtime because I have to support my family.
_____

6. I am thrilled to be here with you guys! _____

7. He was reluctant to participate in the competition. _____

8. It was wise of Judy to Google the landmarks before actually visiting a new country.

She always does so, it's in her nature. _____

9. Heidi is always eager to help. She's a wonderful friend.
_____

