Juan Lopez Buenos Aires, Argentina

This is my dream town. Its name is Konohan. It's clean, small, and beautiful. It's not expensive or polluted. There are two schools, two banks, a hospital, a post office, a bus station, a park, a supermarket, two cafes, and restaurants. The City School is opposite the bank and the supermarket is at the corner of Main Street and Third Avenue. My favourite place is Pizza Town. It's behind the library on Center Street. This restaurant cooks delicious pepperoni pizzas. There isn't a cinema, a soccer field, or a sports centre.
