

Poland strike 'most likely from Ukrainian air defence', says Nato chief - BBC News

"World's leaders continue to react	to the missile strike in Poland on Tuesday in which	NATO has confirmed the missile is likely to have been fired	I by Ukrainian air defence, but the organization i	t wouldn't have happened without Russia's bombardment of Ukraine.
Well, in a moment, we'll talk live to	o the NATO Jens Stoltenberg but first our dipl	omatic correspondent Paul Adams explains the" explosion in Poland caused a shadow of fear _____ the western alliance, especially in these eastern-european members of NATO. Was this the moment everyone had been

"Yesterday's news of an

dreading since February	when NATO fir	ally found itself i	n Ru	ıssia. Let's reme	mber what was	actually happening yesterday, right on NAT	O's	Another day o	of massive Russian missile strikes here in re	ed, against Ukrai	ne's civilian infra	structure, from one of the country to	Some o	of those strikes w	ere over the far west, very close to the F	Polish border, to	the village where	e two people died.
Ukraine said and still sa	ys that a Russia	n missile was Before long though, exp	erts looked at th	is wreckage and a different theory	. That these wer	e parts of air de	fence missile fired by Ukraine.
World leaders from Joe	Biden to the Poli	sh President hav	re all gradually come to the	This is the	e S-300, a Russi	an-made surface-to-air missile, introduced in	n the 1970s and	still	throughout the countries of the old Sc	oviet Union, ind	luding Ukraine.	As Russian cruise missiles flew across U	Jkrainian cities	yesterday, there	e were to shoot ther	m down. Many w	vere successful,	some were not. The western leaders all agi	ree that Ukrain	e has an	to defend itself. What happened yesterday	in Poland, they say, was not Ukraine's"

"You know that President Zelenski has been speaking within the last hour or so, and there still seems to be as to what exactly has been found on that border in Poland. They have said: "As we understand it, their rocket	in the air before reaching Polish soil. What do you have about what's happened?" https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eg72WuWUn_E&ab_channel=BBCNews Jens Stoltenberg NATO Secretary General	"The investigation is still going but our is the same as the Polish assessment. And Paul's actually the investigation. And that is that most likely this is Ukrainian air defence missile. But the main message is that Russia bears the	responsibility because it would not have happened, hadn't Russia waged a and aggression against Ukraine. And yesterday it was the wave of missile and air Ukrainian citizens. Of course, Ukraine has the right to defend itself against these attacks." dorona noon agamer these attacks.

Match the words with their definitions

A flying weapon that can be directed by a computer during its flight and that sometimes carries nuclear explosives.

To conduct an armed fighting between two or more countries.

To feel extremely worried or frightened.

A sudden and powerful hit or attack by a flying weapon that has its own engine.

A badly damaged object or the separated parts of a badly damaged object.

A flying weapon that is fired from land or the sea towards aircraft or other missiles.

Attempts to do smth but which are out of control because of extreme emotion.

a missile strike to dread

wreckage

surface-to-air missile cruise missile

frantic efforts

wage a war

Soon.
The act of judging or deciding the amount, value, quality,	brutal
etc.	hafana lana (idiam)
The main duty.	before long (idiom) assessment
Cruel, violent, and completely without feelings.	in charge of
Be responsible for smth.	ultimate responsibility

